

B4- 2416

ST. MARK'S CATHOLIC CHURCH - 1889 - 30 Melvin Avenue, Catonsville. Small, stone, Gothic Revival church designed by Thomas C. Kennedy. Opening reported in B.C. Democrat, November 9, 1889. In 1893, frescoes were painted by Filippo Costaggini, the second fresco artist employed on the U.S. Capitol dome in Washington. Five new stained glass windows were reported installed, Md. Journal, November 3, 1900.